Arlene Goodman - President (702) 228-6362, arlvegas@aol.com

Hi everyone.

I can't believe it is time for the May-June issue of the Newsletter. Well, we had a very busy March and April. We had a wonderful Purim party, and many congregants came wearing fantastic costumes. There was a parade so the judges could pick the winner. And the winner was "a pair of love birds" with feathers and all. (Vicki Socol and Dave Kandel). We had lots of fun and A GREAT SERVICE THANKS TO Moreh Alan Spector, Cantor Marla Goldberg, soloist Melanie Spector and our Musical Director Tim Cooper conducting our Choir.

April was busy with preparations for Passover. Our Seder was held at the Suncoast with over 100 people in attendance. Food was plentiful and spirits were high.

May will be even busier with Bar and Bat Mitzvahs being conducted during the month. There will be 13 congregants being honored.

BKB is an active adult congregation, and we are just getting started.

Be happy, be healthy, be Safe.

Arlene Goodman
President

NEW BEGINNINGS...

Passover has “passed over,” Spring has “sprung” and we are now in a time of re-birth, re-awakening and re-dedication. On Passover, the Israelites gained their freedom and were freed from Egyptian slavery. Now 49 days later, in the desert, G-d gives the 10 Commandments to the people – they accept the Torah and dedicate themselves to following G-d’s commandments, thus becoming a “people” – The Jewish People.

At BKB, we celebrated Passover with a wonderful, meaningful, and fun Seder – together. We mourned the unspeakable Holocaust on Yom HaShoah – together. On Israel Independence Day, Yom Ha'atzmaut, we danced and sang – together. And now we prepare to observe Shavuot, the receiving of the Torah – together. We have joined together, rejoiced with our traditions, strengthened our faith, and kept alive our Judaism. BKB has a long and valued history, and we still celebrate new beginnings every holiday, every season, and with every event – celebrations and sorrows – together.

This May, we will all gather to celebrate the Bar and Bat Mitzvahs of 13 of our members. These folks took on the challenge to learn to read Hebrew, study Jewish history from Adam to Israel and to be inspired by the teachings of our Sages over the years. For many months, every week after week, these folks overcame what others call barriers to keep at it and succeed in their own personal goals. We all join in congratulating these dedicated students on their accomplishments. They have shown the courage, perseverance, trust, wisdom, and ability that can inspire all of us... as we create our own “New Beginnings.” Heartfelt congratulations to Judy Auerbach,

Susan Feinberg, Nadine Carter, Arlene Goodman, David Kandel, Jane Lewis, Gladys London, Barbara Mirman, Nathan Ohlendorf, Sue Schweitzer, Vicki Socol, Melanie Spector and Darlene Vaturi. All BKB is so proud of you and your accomplishments.

One student told me, “You know the REAL challenge was not studying to become a Bat Mitzvah, the REAL challenge is for me to continue the studies I have begun.” My joyful response to her was “True. I am so proud of you, but remember, the first step is often the steepest and most difficult. No matter what... you have created a new beginning!”

So now, we have Spring... we have become “free” (Passover) and dedicated ourselves to our Judaism (Shavuot) and witnessed the historic New Beginning for our Bar/Bat Mitzvah students. The lesson for all of us is that life brings us all sorts of challenges, defeats, sadness, joy, and much more. Still, every day we have the opportunity to create a New Beginning for ourselves. We cannot control all the situations, but we CAN control our reactions and behaviors. We CAN choose to take the opportunity to create a New Beginning... and to make it memorable, valuable, beneficial, and joyful.

BKB is so happy to be a part of all the New Beginnings – of all the new opportunities – and all the great accomplishments. Thank you for being such an important part of BKB and for sharing all the Mitzvot and celebrations – together.

Be well, take care,

Moreh Alan
Blessings and Peace.

RITUAL THOUGHTS FOR SENIORS

Old age, I decided, is a gift. I am now, probably for the first time in my life, the person I have always wanted to be. Oh, not my body! I sometimes despair over my body, the wrinkles, the baggy eyes, and the sagging butt. And often I am taken aback by that old person that lives in my mirror (who looks like both my Mom and Dad!), but I don't agonize over those things for long.

I would never trade my amazing friends and acquaintances, my wonderful life, my loving family for less gray hair or a flatter belly. As I've aged, I've become more kind to myself, and less critical of myself. I've become my own friend. I have seen too many dear friends leave this world too soon; before they understood the great freedom that comes with aging.

Sure, over the years my heart has been broken. How can your heart not break when you lose a loved one, or when a child suffers, or even when a dear friend has a loss? But broken hearts are what give us strength and understanding and compassion. A heart never broken is pristine and sterile and will never know the joy of being imperfect.

I like being old. It has set me free. I like the person I have become. I am not going to live forever, but while I am still here, I will not waste time lamenting what could have been, or worrying about what will be. And I shall eat dessert every single day (if I feel like it).

Men's Club

Larry Kaufman, President, (818) 486-4188, larry.kaufman.lk@gmail.com

Hi Everyone,

The Men's Club has been very active since January. We had a well informed knowledgeable speaker, Rob Packer, give a presentation in April on the old Temples of Chicago that have been sold or destroyed in the last 150 or so years. We had an Officer of the LV Metro Police speak on safety in the home and security. On Monday, 9:00 AM, May 1, here at Desert Vista we will have our Men's Club Secretary, Dr. Dave Altman, give a presentation on his Service and time in an Army MASH unit while he was serving in the Army in Viet Nam. The flyer is on the following page. In June we are having a speaker from Secure Community Network give a talk about how to counter an active threat. This can save lives.

I wanted to give a shout out and congratulate our Men's Club Vice President, Dave Kandel, who had his Bar Mitzvah a couple of weeks ago. I also want to give a big thanks to all of the men who have come early and helped to set up our Breakfasts. We also want to thank everyone who has donated so that we can continue to offer our Breakfasts for no cost. We can't do this alone. It takes a community.

Keep a watch out for our E-Blasts announcing our various events. We hope that everyone who has come to our Breakfasts has been enlightened, well fed, and had a great time meeting and discussing things with all our congregants and friends attending these events.

We look forward to seeing everyone who attends.

Shalom,

Larry Kaufman, President

Singles Group

Helene Orenstein, (702) 763-4117, BKBSingles@gmail.com

Our last get together at Jason's was a blast. We had a wonderful turnout. Some new members joined us as well as some more veteran BKB members who we do not usually see at the Singles events. And of course, many of our regular members were also in attendance. Thanks to everyone who attended and helped to make our monthly social a great occasion.

Next, we will meet on Friday June 30th at the Bagel Café (301 N Buffalo Dr, Las Vegas, NV 89145) at 5:00 PM for dinner. I hope everyone will join us again for a great sociable meal. This will be our last get together until our Erev Rosh Hashanah Holiday dinner on Friday, September 15th.

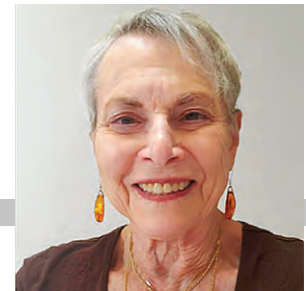

Just a reminder, any BKB member who pays a single BKB membership or members who have lost a spouse or partner during the year, the Singles Group is open to you at no additional cost. Also, BKB members who are "socially single," i.e., their partner due to health or other reasons is unavailable to participate in social activities, the BKB Singles group is open to you as well.

You can RSVP to the June 30h dinner at the Bagel Café by leaving a message at (702) 763-4117 or sending an email to BKBSingles@gmail.com .

If you would like to be on the singles e-mail list, please send a message to BKBSingles@gmail.com.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS!

Please welcome new members Nadine Carter, Jan & Doug Fleckner and Robin Gold.

If you haven't done so yet, take a tour of our newly updated website at bkbv.org. You can read our current Newsletter or go back in time to previous ones. You can see what future events have been planned by checking the calendar or see pictures of past events. And for your convenience we've given you an option to arrange for tributes and onegs, make donations for yahrzeits, tzedakah or to plant trees in Israel, and pay for any of these things all online. Please feel free to call me or Gail Weiss if you have any questions about our website.

We are also looking for members who have a few hours to spare and who will volunteer for their services. The Choir is looking for members who like to sing, Clubs (Men's Club, Sisterhood and Singles Group) are looking for members who enjoy socializing and our Committees (Jewish Education, Fund Raising, High Holy Days, Newsletter and Website) would appreciate members who have ideas to share.

Our chair people would appreciate any help you can offer. This is your chance to learn what it takes to run a Synagogue and to become a meaningful part of Temple BKB.

Edith
