HAVE YOU NOTICED...

Our rich Jewish heritage provides us with a steady flow of holidays. The Torah details many of our celebrations and our later traditions bring us many more. We have celebrations, holidays for reflection and repentance, and memorials of important events in our long Jewish history.

In September this year, we have Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur, and in October we will have Succot (Festival of Booths) and Simchat Torah (Rejoice in the Torah). G-d has given us Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur for us to take stock of our lives and find ways to become better as people and as Jews. On Yom Kippur we remember our loved ones and pray to be inscribed in the Book of Life for another year. On Succot, we celebrate one of the three Pilgrimage Holidays when the Jews travelled to Jerusalem to offer their sacrifices – we gather in our BKB Sukkot and celebrate. On Simchat Torah, Jews all over the world complete last chapter of the yearly cycle of Torah readings and begin the next year's reading all over again – at the same time, to be sure there is no break in our Torah study. These months are busy with holidays and services and gatherings. It is an absolutely wonderful time for Jews worldwide.

This year, as we are preparing for our BKB services, I have been reflecting on how wonderful it is for all of us to be together... all of us to join together to honor our traditions... and all of us to strengthen our bonds with each other, with our faith, with our community, and with our G-d. It can become easy to take what is unique and special about BKB for granted... to let things become rote... to let our heartfelt mission become blurry.

This is a good time to pause... take notice... and give voice to our gratitude and appreciation to all that BKB brings to our lives. It is our spiritual home, a safe place when we are needy, a joyous place when we celebrate, and a place for the kind of friendships and connections which add dimension and meaning to our lives. I know that we all have many facets to our lives and many things to do and many distractions. But... have you noticed? BKB is full of life with so much to offer each of us. Perhaps, this is a good time to just feel our gratitude and affection for BKB and for each person who makes our Temple such a very special place for all of us. This is a great time to thank all the BKB Officers and Board Members, the leadership of our Sisterhood, Men's Club, and Singles Group. It is a great time to thank our fabulous choir and, of course, our very special Cantor, maestro, and cantorial soloist. Don't forget the people who set up our Temple for services, collect the prayer-books, produce this newsletter, manage our website, provide our Oneg's, send out our donation cards, get our event speakers, organize special events, teach classes, etc. etc.

It is also a great time to invite you to get involved... there are so many ways for you to get active – you will have fun, make new personal connections, and enrich your lives spiritually. Word has it that Arlene Goodman, BKB President, would love to chat with you about getting more involved. As your Spiritual Leader, I am available 24/7/365 to connect with you when you might need support, celebration, information, or just to chat. BKB is here for you when you need us. You are a very important part of the BKB family.

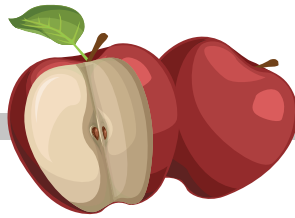

Welcome to 5784. May we all be inscribed in the Book of Life for a happy, healthy, and prosperous new year.

Moreh Alan

Blessings and Peace.

Ritual

Mike Fefferman, (414) 704-0730

A lovely little boy was holding two apples with both hands. His mother came in and softly asked her little boy with a smile: “My sweetie, could you give your mom one of your two apples?” The boy looked up at his mom for some seconds, then he suddenly took a quick bite on one apple, and then quickly on the other. The mom tried hard not to reveal her disappointment. Then the little boy handed one of his bitten apples to his mom and said: “Mommy, here you are. This is the sweeter one.”

No matter who you are, how experienced you are, and how knowledgeable you think you are, always delay judgement. Give others the privilege to explain themselves. What you see may not be the reality. Never conclude for others.

L'Shanah Tovah
Have a sweet year!

Sisterhood

Vicki Socol, President, (818) 399-7748, catmethat@aol.com

Can you believe Erev Rosh Hashana is almost here? I seemed to have blinked, and the year passed by. The BKB Sisterhood is programming some speakers and events for September and October that I'm sure you will enjoy.

September 27th, 10 AM at Desert Vista, Ruth Alexman will intrigue you, and have you question the true author of Shakespeare's plays. History, perspective, and time may have you reach some unexpected conclusions.

October 25th, again 10 AM at Desert Vista, join us for a presentation about the Mob Museum. The speaker will make sure your attendance cannot be refused.

The Sisterhood is searching for women who would like to actively help build and maintain our strong organization. We could use help in a variety of ways. If you can offer your time picking up, ordering food or help setting up tables for the general meetings or onegs, we'd appreciate your involvement.

Have you brain-stormed over the summer and come up with some fantastic ideas for new Sisterhood activities? Please call me, Vicki Socol (818-399-7748).

Let me hear from you. We value YOU and your participation.

Oh.... Don't forget.... Contact Arlene Gold to sponsor an Oneg if you have a simcha you'd like to share. (702-363-8008)

See you all soon,

Vicki

Men's Club

Larry Kaufman, President, (818) 486-4188, larry.kaufman.lk@gmail.com

Hi Everyone,

The Men's Club has been active this Summer. It is September now and the weather is starting to cool off somewhat. The last two months we have had meetings we are calling "Coffee Klatches". The only speakers are us! We have some coffee and donuts and then talk about what is on our minds. This has been an experiment, but I think it has gone off quite well.

Now to the future. We were notified that our monthly Monday Breakfasts at Desert Vista may not be available starting in September. We are working on finding another venue or time at Desert Vista to hold our monthly meetings. Last August 28th was our last meeting there. Hopefully, we can find another day and time. If anyone knows a place to hold these breakfast meetings, please let us know. We will be notifying everyone this month, when we can tie down a place and time, of our next meeting by email and also at Services.

We just heard that Murray Waks, our past President and longtime member of BKB, will be moving to California to be with his family. We will miss him since he has been with us from the beginning of the Men's Club and has been a leading force and leader in our continued and instrumental existence. We want to thank him for his inspiration and dedication to the Men's Club and to Bet Knesset Bamidbar. We wish him good health and know he will be welcomed with his family.

Shalom,
Larry Kaufman, President
BKB Men's Club

Singles Group

Helene Orenstein, (702) 763-4117, BKBSingles@gmail.com

The goal of the BKB Singles Group is to provide an entertaining social activity where the Single and Socially Single members of BKB can get together to celebrate holidays, get to know each other, enjoy a great activity and participate in Jewish community activities. For example, this year we attended the Celebrate Israel event organized by the Israeli American Council, the Jewish Food Festival and had numerous dine-outs.

Membership in the BKB Singles Group is complementary with your BKB membership. It is open to all members who pay a single membership fee regardless of their social status, members who have lost a spouse or partner during the year and members who are "socially single," i.e., their partner due to health or other reasons is unavailable to participate in social activities.

Our next activity will be Erev Rosh Hashanah Holiday Dinner on Friday, September 15th, 4 PM at Jason's Deli at Rampart and Charleston. You can RSVP to this event by sending an email to BKBSingles@gmail.com or leave a message at 702-763-4117.

Our upcoming activities are: October 29th, 5 PM, a dine-out at the Bagel Café, November 26th, 5 PM, a dine-out at Jason's Deli and December 10th at 5 PM, our annual Hannukah Party and White Elephant Gift Exchange at Helene's house. An email will be sent out prior to each activity with all the details and RSVP information.

If you would like to join the Singles email list, you can send a message to BKBSingles@gmail.com
